City of Harrah Announces New Online Bill Payment Options

*Residents and Businesses Can Now Conveniently Pay Select Bills
Online at <http://www.harrah-ok.gov/>*

HARRAH, Okla., – January 30, 2009 – The city of Harrah is pleased to offer residents and businesses the opportunity to pay a number of bills online, including bond/citation payments, pavilion and amphitheater deposit/rent payments, and utility payments. Harrah residents and businesses can access the online bill pay system by visiting <http://www.harrah-ok.gov/> and clicking on “I Want To ...” and then “Pay My Bill”.

“We are very optimistic that adding online credit card payments to our Web site will prove to be a tremendous convenience to all of our citizens,” said Deborah Miner, City Clerk. “It will save them valuable time, and we are committed to simplifying the process as much as we can.”

Harrah’s Online Bill Pay System is a product of a partnership between the city of Harrah and Oklahoma’s Official Web site, <http://www.ok.gov>.

Visa and MasterCard payments can be made 24 hours a day and are processed through OK.gov’s secure payment engine. OK.gov abides by rigorous policies and procedures to safeguard all personal information, such as banking information and personal data. This ensures that citizens can be confident that their payments are safe, private, and secure.
